

CLARK-HELLAND NUPTIALS

A wedding that comes as a real surprise to our readers was consummated Tuesday of this week when Miss Alma Helland, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Helland was united in marriage to Mr. Hugh Clark, of Langdon. The ceremony performed at the German parsonage at 11 a. m., Tuesday, Rev. E. Wille officiating. The witnesses were Miss Rande Helland and Thorvald Helland, sister and brother of the bride. Following the marriage ceremony the bridal party and relatives partook of the wedding dinner which was served at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride is a young lady of many noteworthy accomplishments, who has many friends who will wish her happiness.

The groom is a prosperous farmer of Langdon and is a young man of high standing in his community.

The newlyweds will leave Friday via Pekin to make their home on the groom's farm at Langdon.

The Times joins with their many friends in wishing them their full measure of happiness and prosperity.
