

Saturday, June 24.

A complete surprise was sprung on our residents last Thursday when two of our prominent young people stole a march on their friends and were married at the Lutheran Free Church parsonage. The contracting parties are Miss Julia Gilbertson, daughter of Swen Gilbertson, and Hjalmer Helland, son of A. J. Helland. Miss Alvira Holing and Elias Halling acted as witnesses, and Rev. L. M. Halling performed the ceremony. The Times joins with their many friends in extending best wishes.
