

Fargo Forum: Miss Inez Hemerlin, daughter of Mrs. A. M. Hemerlin, 611 Eighth st. S., Fargo, became the bride of Fred A. Kulper, of Chicago, at 3 p. m., Monday, March 5. The ceremony, which was a simple one, was read at the bride's home by Dr. W. C. Hodgson, pastor of the First Methodist church, in the presence of the members of the two families. The couple had no attendants. The bride wore a tailored suit of blue poliet twill with accessories to correspond. Mr. and Mrs. Kulper left the same afternoon for

Chicago and will then go to New York where they are to make their home and where Mr. Kulper is superintendent of the testing departments for the Western Electric company. Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served.

Mrs. Kulper came to Fargo with her mother last fall from her home in Cooperstown and has resided in Fargo this winter. Mr. Kulper has been in the employ of the Western Electric company in Chicago for some time but has lately been transferred to New York.
