

E. P. RORVIG MARRIES

NEW ROCKFORD GIRL

New Rockford Transcript: A wedding of interest to the people of New Rockford was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mont E. Biggs at eight o'clock Wednesday morning when Miss Martha Kreumpel and E. P. Rorvig were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Harry R. Harris, pastor of the First Congregational church of this city, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and a few intimate friends of the couple. The bride was handsomely gowned in green and white canton crepe with a corsage of sweet peas and roses, while the groom wore the customary dark suit. The rooms were appropriately decorated for the occasion and Rev. Harris pronounced a splendid ceremony.

Following the ceremony and congratulations, the wedding party repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tarbell where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. The happy couple then departed for a motor trip to the twin cities where they will spend a week and will return and be at home in the Fairview Apartments.

Both these young people are well and favorably known to the people of New Rockford and community, the bride being the eldest daughter of Mrs. Emma Kreumpel, and has for several years been one of the efficient and popular instructors in our city public schools, having had charge of both primary and second grade departments. She is a young lady of many splendid qualities, an accomplished singer and has a large circle of friends and admirers. The groom is the traveling auditor for the Great Western Grain company and has made his headquarters here for several years past. He is a young man highly esteemed by the large number of friends he has made during his residence here and a worthy mate for the exceptionally fine young lady he has secured as a life partner.
