

Frigaard-Sinner.

A pretty wedding took place at 8 a. m. Thursday at St. Mary's cathedral, Fargo, when Miss Bertha Frigaard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gunder C. Frigaard of Cooperstown, became the bride of Leo N. Sinner, son of Mrs. John B. Sinner of Fargo. Rev. Father Egan, pastor of the cathedral, read the service, which was witnessed by a company of friends and family members.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Gardner hotel at 10 a. m. and covers were laid for ten guests. Mr. and Mrs. Sinner left for an eastern wedding trip and will receive their friends at the Sinner farm near Casselton after February 1st.

Mrs. Sinner has been a teacher in the Roosevelt school at Fargo since September and previous to that time taught in the public school at Casselton.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Gunder C. Frigaard, and daughter, Gertrude, of Cooperstown, parents and sister of the bride, Alber^s Sinner and Miss Mayme Sinner, brother and sister of the bridegroom, of Casselton.—Fargo Forum.
