

ous, has accumulated a comfortable competence.

There are twelve children living, all of whom were present at the celebration, Charlie, of Canby, Minn., Barney, of Colorado; Martin of Ambrose, N. D.; Mrs. Rhodes, of Thief River Falls, Minn., Mrs. Anderson, of Veblen S. D.; Mrs. Osen, of Binford, N. D.; Edward, of Kenville, Man. Can.; and Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Brimmer, Mrs. C. Hanson, Albert and Roy of Sanborn. There were sixteen grandchildren present out of thirty-four, and also several cousins and second cousins.

The bridal pair marched to their place under an arch to the Lohengrin Wedding march, played by Miss C. Hanson. Rev. V. F. Larson then read the wedding service, and gave a very impressive talk to the children. Next a presentation of twelve gold plated spoons was made by Edward Siverson, who spoke to the children for a few minutes on "Life Service." After congratulations were tendered by all, the bridal pair and their twelve children were escorted to the dining room by Rev. Mr. Larson, where they all sat down together at the first table, an event that had never happened before in the history of the Siverson family.

The room was prettily decorated with roses and gold. The table held burning candles with shades of gold. After the sumptuous dinner they all retired to the reception hall, where they spent the remainder of the evening in telling stories of childhood days.
