

SMITH-RICE WEDDINGS

Before a gathering of intimate friends and relatives, the wedding of Miss Laura Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Rice, and Mr. Forrest Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith, of Sutton, was solemnized at high noon today, June 23, at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Brooke, of Cooperstown read the service.

Miss Margaret Ristad presided at the piano, and the bridal party made its way to the improvised altar to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, where the vows were spoken. Following the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served in the lodge rooms, with plates laid for about fifty guests.

The bride was attired in a lovely gown of white organdie, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Martin of Sutton were the only attendants.

The bride is an accomplished young lady who has many friends who will wish her much happiness. She was reared into womanhood in Binford and has until this spring attended high school here. The groom is a popular young man and is engaged in farming on his father's farm near Sutton.

The out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were George Adams and family of Cooperstown, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Russel and son, of Yakima, Washington, Mrs. Katherine Ward, of Whitefish, Montana, and Wm. L. Petersen and family, of Lancaster, Minnesota, and Mrs. Bertha Hopkins, of Mt. Ayr, Iowa.

The Times joins their numerous friends in hearty congratulations, and wishes the young couple much joy and prosperity in their wedded life.
