

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED

Mr. Martinus Norswing and Miss Helen Mabel Skofstad Joined in Wedlock.

Perhaps the most beautiful and impressive wedding ceremony that has been our duty to chronicle, was performed yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Skofstad, six miles north of Cooperstown, when Mr. Martinus Norswing of Binford and Miss Helen Mabel Skofstad were united in marriage and 'til death do them part their hearts will beat as one.

The solemn marriage ceremony took place at four o'clock in the parlor of the bride's home. Rev. V. E. Boe of Finley, North Dakota, spoke the words which united the two hearts for the remainder of life's journey. The couple were attended by Mr. Knute Norswing and Mr. Joseph Skofstad and Miss Bertha Skofstad and Miss Matilda Norswing, brothers and sisters of the bride and groom. Congratulations followed with merry jest and cheerful conversation. Only immediate relatives and a few friends were present. Following the congratulations the party repaired to the dining room, tastily decorated, where a wedding supper was served.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Skofstad, living north of Cooperstown, and is a young lady of acquirements. For three years she has taught the school in the Willow district north of this village. She is a lady of many graces of mind and person, who is capable of filling the home she will adorn with happiness and will prove to be truly a helpmate and companion by the husband she has chosen to honor with her hand.

The groom is a steady young man, of good, moral habits, and though only on the threshold of life, has made a mark in the public and social affairs of the village. "Tinus," as he is familiarly known, enjoys the happy faculty of transforming acquaintances into staunch friends and admirers. For the past six years he has been in the employ of Greenland, Pritz & Co., and by earnest endeavors with strict attention to his duties, he has won the confidence of his employers.

This event marks the most important milestone in their life. Another home is made, a new start in life is commenced under most favorable conditions and circumstances. THE TIMES joins with a large circle of friends in trusting that the unclouded skies of their wedding day will be an omen of success and happiness in their married life.
