

Wylie Keiffer, Harvey Everett and Arvid Norstrum went to Lake Park, Minnesota, Monday. They went there to bring home Mr. Keiffer's automobile, which had been left there when they moved to Binford. The boys are expected home almost any time.

The interior of the drug store has been treated with a fresh coat of paint, which adds greatly to its appearance. Druggist Anderson is strictly up-to-date and has a store second to none in this section of the country, and which fact is appreciated by his customers.

Sheriff Lee was up on official business Tuesday. Mr. Lee has purchased a Ford automobile, which ought to help some in making his campaign for votes this year. He has made a good record during his incumbency in office, and in that case we believe one good term deserves another.

Wm. Lucht arrived here last Saturday from Spokane, Washington, to look after operations on his farm. Mr. Lucht is well pleased with his western home, the climatic conditions just suit him, and the surroundings are congenial. He will remain for a few weeks before he returns.

Oscar Kittelson has severed his connection with Larson, Ringlee & Co. here and has gone to Aneta, where he will be employed by the same firm. Oscar has a lot of good friends in Binford who were sorry to see him leave. He was a good band and base ball man and his place in both will be hard to fill.

Hannaford Enterprise: Stock is being sold in the local telephone company preparatory to extending the line out to the Sutton neighborhood. The company will then serve the two Great Northern towns to the west of Hannaford and will also add many new rural subscribers thus materially increasing the scope and usefulness of the line.

Monday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Tweed, occurred the marriage of Mr. Adolph Sorvik to Miss Olina Lingard of Culbertson, Montana. Only relatives and a few immediate friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Halling of Valley City. The happy twin will make their home at Juanita, where Mr. Sorvik is engaged in the carpenter business. They left for that place Tuesday.

Editor Howard of McHenry, spent a few hours in The Times office last Saturday. Jack is a dandy, good fellow, and all this and all that, but we can't forgive him for calling our press a manure spreader. That's all right, Jack, but wait till we catch you with a bunch of the newspaper gang, and tell them how you locked up a form and had to use all the rules and jack knives in the shop as "dutchman" to keep it from pulling. Hold 'er.

News was received here Sunday of the death of Mrs. Paul Amlie, at a hospital in Fargo, death resulting from cancer of the stomach. The remains were brought here Tuesday. The funeral was held yesterday from the Norwegian Lutheran church, Rev. Dybvik of McHenry, officiating. Mrs. Amlie was born in Norway in 1874, making her 38 years of age. She was married in 1896.
