

to hear of his success.

Pekin Budget: Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rood gave a very pleasant evening party to a number of their friends on Tuesday evening, celebrating the fifth anniversary of their wedding. About thirty were present. At 12 o'clock a delightful lunch was served and after presenting the hosts of the evening a beautiful oak library table and wishing them many happy returns of the event, the guests left for their respective homes, high in praises of the entertainment given them.
