

to their home again on Friday.

Sentinel-Courier: Oscar Idsvoog, who was in the city Saturday from his home in Romness township, was wearing a happy smile and distributing cigars with a lavish hand to his closer friends. A fine baby boy had arrived the preceding day in the Idsvoog home. Tho a little early, the little chap makes just about the finest Christmas gift that could come.