

Mrs. James Clausen.

Mrs. James Clausen passed away Sunday afternoon, April 20, at 2:30 o'clock, as the result of flu complications and childbirth, deceased having been two times a victim of the influenza.

Inga Stromme was born on the farm home east of Hannaford, and had she lived until July 14th next, would have been 29 years of age. On Jan. 9, 1907, she was united in marriage to Mr. James Clausen, in Cooperstown, and they have since made their home in Griggs county, her death occurring at the farm home four and one half miles west of town.

Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Clausen, all of whom with the father, survive. The children are Willie, Mildred, Lawrence, Ralph and Mylo.

Funeral services were held from the Methodist church in Cooperstown Tuesday afternoon, April 22, at 8 o'clock, Rev. Bennett officiating, and burial was made in the Cooperstown cemetery.

The best efforts of loving hands and medical skill were put forth to save this precious life, but fate decreed otherwise, and Mrs. Clausen was called to her eternal home in the very prime of life mourned by the bereft father and little ones, together with a host of friends. Her untimely death is indeed a hard blow and the community extends deepest sympathy to the bereaved family.—
