

at that time.

A. H. Overby received a message conveying the sad news that Hans Hogie, who had been reported missing in action, was killed in action on September 28th. Some days ago letters which had been written to him were returned to Mr. Overby, with the inscription "Wounded," added on the envelopes. Hopes were held out that he was alive until this last message was sent from Washington. Private Hogie, like many, many others, has made the supreme sacrifice for his country.
