

Word reached here Monday of the death at Sutton of Wm. Howden, an old pioneer of Griggs county. He was taken seriously ill on April 18th with congestion of the lungs. His condition took a turn for the better and for some time there was hope of his recovery, but later he relapsed and death resulted. The funeral is held today at Sutton.

---