

ROBERT P. LYLE FIRST CASUALTY

Young Sutton Man Makes Supreme Sacrifice in First Days of 'Allies Offensive.

A telegram from Washington last Friday, to Peter S. Lyle, who resides three miles east of Sutton, conveyed the news that his son, Robert Park Lyle, was killed in action in France on July 15th.

No other information is contained in the message announcing his death but it is believed here that young Lyle was among the casualties of the first days of the allies counter-offensive in the Rheims-Soissons salient.

Robert Lyle was about 23 years of age and was living with his parents when called in the selective draft. He left with the Griggs county contingent of 84 men for Camp Dodge, September 19.

This is the first casualty reported from among the boys from Griggs county, who are in service overseas.
