

The funeral services of Mrs. J. D. Reid were held last Friday forenoon from the Free church, Rev. L. M. Halling officiating. He spoke in words of tenderest sympathy and comfort, of deepest Christian hope and promise. The church was filled with sorrowing friends and relatives who had come to pay their last respects to the departed one. The choir rendered two appropriate selections, and Mrs. Halling sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. F. Ringlee. Sister Rebekahs occupied seats behind the mourners in a body, and the six pall bearers were members of the I. O. O. F., namely, August Evers, D. F. Rice, Henry Hanson, C. F. Asmus, Herman Osen and A. W. Ringlee. Following the services the remains were shipped to Jessie where the following day the last sad rites were held in the Catholic church of which Mrs. Reid was a member. Father Kleidon conducted the solemn services, and the remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery. The floral offerings which covered the casket were many, and beautiful tokens of love and esteem in which deceased was held by relatives and friends.
