

Death of Mrs. Susan H. Shaw.

On Tuesday night, October 26, at her home in Lucca, the soul of Mrs. Susan H. Shaw, of Lucca, passed from its earthy receptacle to join her husband who had gone before. Mrs. Shaw was past 87 years of age, and her death was the culmination of a life of kindness and helpfulness to others. She was ill but five days previous to the end and until that time was very active for her age. She had been at the home of her son, S. S. Shaw, only a few days before she was taken with her final illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw emigrated from the state of Maine in 1881 and settled near Lucca with their family, where they have ever since been active in the progress of the country.

Besides a great many friends Mrs. Shaw leaves to mourn her loss three sons and one daughter. The sons are S. S. Shaw, of Lucca, A. D. Shaw of Binford, and H. W. Shaw of Spokane, Washington. The surviving daughter is Mrs. E. Pillan, of New Jersey.

Deceased was most highly esteemed by a large circle of friends and was prominent in church and social circles, having been for many years an active member of the Congregational church. She will be sincerely mourned by every resident of Lucca.

Funeral services were held at the home in Lucca last Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock, and interment was in the Enderlin cemetery beside the remains of her deceased husband.—
Enderlin Independent.