

a widowhood of thirty-three years. She is survived by these children, Stanley A., a grocer of Viroqua; Alfred, of Washington state, and Rev. Eben, of North Dakota, who mourn the loss of a faithful Christian mother.

She also leaves three sisters; Mrs. Jos. Omundson of Viroqua, Mrs. Severt Larson and Mrs. Ole Fredrickson of Westby, and one brother, Thomas Stevens, of Viroqua town.

A large concourse of friends attended the services at the United Lutheran church, Monday morning, and most fitting was the discourse of her pastor, Rev. E. O. Hofstead. It was a sincere tribute to the memory of one who was not only a very faithful worker in the church, but a valued personal friend. The service was entirely in English except the reading of a favorite hymn of the deceased in Norwegian. In accordance with her request, her favorite hymn in English, "The Home of the Soul," was rendered at the close of the service by Mrs. John Henry and Miss Margaret Hulsether. Interment was at Coon Prairie with many near ones, and many tears were shed over the removal of one whose graces endeared her to so many life long friends. We shall certainly miss her. Mrs. Sweger was a long-time worker in the W. C. T. U. and will be greatly missed in that capacity.

The floral offerings were numerous and rare, in mute tribute reflecting the love borne for a good woman.—
Viroqua (Wis.) Censor.