

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE WEDDED

MR. OSCAR ALM AND MISS HAZEL MAURER MARRIED LAST THURSDAY, JUNE 24

Roses, lillies and garden flowers formed the setting for the wedding which united two of Binford's well known and very much esteemed young people, Miss Hazel Jean Maurer and Mr. Oscar Alm, which occurred at 4:00 o'clock last Thursday afternoon, June 24th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Maurer. Rev. W. L. Bennett, pastor of the Methodist church at Cooperstown, performed the beautiful and impressive ceremony uniting them in the holy bonds of matrimony.

After the customary congratulations and well wishes for future happiness, the wedding party and invited guests partook of a most sumptuous feast of good things to eat. The tables were laid in the spacious dining room of the hotel and seated 64 people. Cut flowers adorned each table.

The bride wore a dainty dress of white organtic, and wore a corsage bouquet of roses. The bride was attended by Miss Irene Pritz and Miss Julia Alm who also were dressed in white. Howard Lewis and Gustav Swenson were the groom's attendants.

A reception was given at the opera house that evening to 200 people, who at midnight enjoyed a lovely lunch at the hotel, served by Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Maurer, the bride's parents. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour.

The presents were many and varied including silver, cut glass, linens, china and money.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Maurer, and one of Binford's most popular young ladies, who has made her home here since childhood. She is a young lady of many charms and a general favorite among her home people. The groom needs but little introduction to our readers, having also made Binford his home since childhood. He is the second oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Alm, and is a young man with an army of friends who esteem him highly. Upon this country's entry into the war he enlisted in the Marines and served nearly two years, part of which time was spent in Haiti. Since his return from service he has been employed with his father in the painting business. His position as third baseman on the Binford ball club has helped win many honors for that aggregation.

Out of town guests in attendance at the wedding were Wm Davidson and family, of Cooperstown, Mrs. Tom Davidson, of Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Linse of Sutton, and Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Alm, of Sanborn.

The newlyweds have started house-keeping in the Maurer residence and will be at home to their many friends on July 24th.

The Times wishes them a long and happy married life.
