

Dahl-Hagle

Of interest to many friends in Binford and vicinity is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Myrtle Susan Hagle to Mr. John G. Dahl. The young people autoed to Coopers-town Tuesday and sprung a complete surprise by being married that evening. The ceremony was performed at the Lutheran parsonage of Rev. Olson, Tuesday evening, June 22. The bride was attended by Miss Etta Kingsley, of Cooperstown, as bridesmaid, while the groom's best man was Henry Hagle.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hagle, and has been reared into womanhood in our midst, where she has made her home with her parents for many years. She is a charming young lady who numbers her friends by her acquaintances.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Dahl, and has made his home with his parents on their farm south of town for years. He is a young man of admirable traits and is a general favorite among the young people.

The newly weds will make their home with the bride's father until the return of her mother from Norway, late in the summer, after which they will start housekeeping on the groom's farm south of town.

The young couple begin married life under the most favorable circumstances and have the best wishes of a host of friends.
