

Popular Young People Married.

Red Lake Falls (Minn.) Gazette: There were two weddings in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Paul of this city Wednesday morning, when Miss Cora Isabel Paul was married to Albin M. Hanson of McHenry, N. D., at 9 o'clock, while Miss Pitilla Paul was married to Robert Jackson of this city a few minutes earlier. Both weddings were performed at the rectory of St. Joseph's Catholic church, the Rev. E. J. Lemire officiating.

Both young ladies were born and raised to womanhood in Red Lake Falls, and are among the popular in the social life of the city. Miss Cora had been employed as assistant cashier of the First National bank of Binford, N. D. during the war, while Miss Pitilla held a responsible position at Grand Forks. They have numerous friends here and elsewhere who will hasten to extend congratulations.

Mr. Hanson is the son of Mrs. H. M. Hanson of Binford, and made his home in that city prior to the time he entered military service. He was stationed at Camp Custer, Mich. and upon his discharge located at McHenry, N. D.

Miss Cora Paul wore a gown of brown suedeme and carried a bouquet of roses and lillies-of-the-valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Eva Paul who wore brown silvertone and wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses. Mr. Hanson was attended by his brother, Clarence Hanson, of Binford.

Following the two ceremonies a wedding breakfast was given at the home of the brides' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Paul, and the house was prettily decorated with autumn leaves and red carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson left Wednesday morning for Fargo where they will spend a brief honeymoon before leaving for McHenry where they will be at home after November 15.
