

Haugen-Patterson

McHenry Tribune: On Wednesday, December 15, 1920, at high noon, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Patterson gave their only daughter, E. Mildred, in marriage to Arthur O. Haugen, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Haugen.

It was a pretty quiet home wedding at the home of the bride, Rev. T. A. Haugen performing the ceremony. Only the near relatives were present. The Haugen family of McVillage started by auto and encountered too much snow and failed to be in attendance, the selected attendants were stuck in a snow bank, but the affair was carried out very nicely, though there were vacant chairs.

The bride was attired in a suit of brown and wore a corsage bouquet of roses and violets, while the groom wore a blue serge.

The home and table were beautifully decorated with pink and cream roses and ferns.

After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served by the bride's mother, which added to the day's festivities.

The contracting parties are among McHenry's most highly respected and worthy young people.

Mrs. Haugen has been a resident of this community a greater part of her life and her friends are numbered by her acquaintances. She is always willing to do all she can for any cause that is for the betterment of the community. She is industrious and well qualified for her new duties, and will make her partner a splendid helpmate through life's journey.

Mr. Haugen is so well and favorably known that special mention is really not needed. He is one of McHenry's most live business men, having charge of the Haugen hardware store of this place, and has the respect of the business world and a host of friends. He served in the army in the aviation division and since his return has been active in the American Legion and through his untiring efforts has aided materially in building up the Post to its present standing. He is a valuable asset to the community, is a good fellow and his many friends wish him well.

Mr. and Mrs. Haugen will spend a short honeymoon at the twin cities after which they will return to McHenry and will be at home to their many friends after February 1st.
