

is extended to everybody.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Thorn entertained at a large dinner party last Sunday, at their home, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Odin Hitterdal, who had been recently married and just returned from a wedding trip. The dinner guests were Robt. Thorn and family, Ralph Manning and family and O. E. Thorn, of Jessie; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Olstad, Henry Alfson and family, and Miss Julia Alm. Mr. and Mrs. Hitterdal departed Wednesday for Hitterdal, Minnesota, where they will make their home.

The programs given by the Feder-