

Fadness-Lowe.

Miss Laura Fadness and Mr. Emil Lowe were united in marriage Monday afternoon, February 3, at 4 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Collette, at Cooperstown, Rev. Sweger officiating.

The bride was attired in a very tasty and becoming gown of white crepe de chine and Georgette crepe, and the groom wore the conventional black. Mr. and Mrs. Collette acted as witnesses and only immediate relatives were present. A delicious six o'clock dinner was served by Mrs. Collette.

The home of the bride is near Sutton, and she is a very charming young lady with hosts of friends. The groom is the son of Carl Lowe who has grown to manhood on a farm near Jessie, which he recently purchased from his father, and where the newlyweds will reside.

Both are very estimable young people whose numerous friends join The Times in extending congratulations and best wishes.
