

Gagnon-Moore.

Grafton News and Times: A quiet wedding took place on New Year's day when Marie Antoinette Gagnon became the bride of Francis Edward Moore, of McHenry, N. D. They were married at St. John's Roman Catholic church at 8 o'clock a. m. and were unattended.

Following the service a breakfast was served to the immediate relatives. Mrs. Gagon was assisted in the dining room by the Misses Teresa and Ernestine and Mrs. A. E. Wilde.

The bride wore a suit of burgundy and brown with grey fox furs and a hat of brown and gold cloth.

Marie Gagnon left on fifth of March 1919 with the first unit on the Celtic for France and for a year did telephone work about twenty-five miles back of the front lines. On August the twentieth she returned to the states on LaSavore. She received a citation from General Pershing, Commander in Chief for exceptionally meritorious and conspicuous service at Toul, France.

Mr. Moore is a prosperous young grain man at McHenry but expects in the spring to take up farming near Glendive, Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore left on the morning train for Duluth to spend about one month.

Mrs. Moore has been a very popular young lady in our city and has the best wishes of the whole community.

Miss Rella Moore of Tolna, a sister of the groom and Arthur Dehr Moore of Lakota attended the wedding.
