

maids. Katherine Norman was dressed in a white embroidered frock and her flowers were a corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas; Anna Stadig was gowned in yellow organdy and wore a corsage of lavender sweet peas. Mrs. N. Erick Stadig, sister-in-law of the bride, acted as matron of honor. She was dressed in white organdie and turquoise blue taffeta, and carried Mrs. Ward's roses.

Little Marjory Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson, carried a quaint little hat filled with sweet peas.

The bride was beautifully gowned in ivory satin with an overdrape of georgette and crystal beads. From her shoulder hung a court train fastened with a buckle of rhinestones. Her veil of bridal illusion was held in place by a wreath of lillies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of bride roses and lillies of the valley.

The groom was attended by Theodore Stadig, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony a buffet lunch was served to about seventy-five guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Nordquist will make their home in Stillwater, Minnesota.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. N. Erick Stadig of Camp Sherman, Ohio, Gertrude, Anna and Theodore Stadig of Minneapolis, Rev. and Mrs. Domeij and Mrs. John Norman of Valley City, and Robert and Alexander Johnson of Aneta.
