

Sorvik-Adrian.

A wedding of interest to the people of Binford and vicinity, occurred at the Lutheran parsonage at Cooperstown, last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Miss Carrie Adrian was united in marriage to Harold Sorvik, of Cooperstown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. E. Sweger, in the presence of the near relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Mohn acted as witnesses.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the groom's home where an elaborate wedding dinner was served.

The bride in the above happy event is a well known young lady of Binford, being the youngest daughter of A. H. Adrian, and has grown to womanhood in our midst. She is a young lady of much personal charm and many accomplishments. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Sorvik, and while a resident of our neighboring city, has a wide acquaintance here and is admired for his good qualities.

The newly weds will make their home with the groom's parents until spring when they will set up housekeeping in Cooperstown where the groom is employed.

The many friends of the young lady in this city and county will join The Times in extending congratulations and wishes for a long and happy wedded life for her and her chosen life partner.
