

Stromme-Know.

A wedding of interest to the people of Binford and the north country was solemnized at the Lutheran parsonage of Rev. J. D. Runsvold at Fargo, at 10 a. m. Wednesday, Nov. 19, 1919, when Miss Mabel Know of Lakota and Oscar Stromme were united in marriage. The couple was attended by Miss Ida Stromme, a sister of the groom, and Ivanhoe Aasgaard.

Following the wedding ceremony and congratulations, the wedding party repaired to Howard's Cafe, where an elaborate wedding dinner had been prepared. The newlyweds left for the Twin Cities to spend their honeymoon.

The principals in the above happy event are well known young people of the community. The bride is a sister of Mrs. August Rickford of Pekin, and has been in the employ of the law firm of Frich & Kelly, at Lakota, as stenographer. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Stromme of north of town, and is one of the hustling young farmers of Nelson county—a fine young man and a worthy mate to the estimable young lady he has selected as his life partner.

The Times joins in with the army of friends of the young people in extending congratulations and wishes for all the best things of life in their journey down the pathway together.
