

Thune-Hegland.

On Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Lutheran parsonage, occurred the marriage of Miss Annie Hegland to Knude Thune, both of Bryan township. Rev. L. M. Halling was the officiating clergyman who tied the nuptial knot pronouncing the ceremony which united the lives of these estimable young people. The witnesses were Miss Christine Thune and Arthur Hegland.

The wedding dinner was served at the bride's home, and the newly-weds left that afternoon for Jessie, where they boarded the train for Fargo and other points where they will spend the honeymoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hegland, and is a young lady of many graces and a winning personality. She has been one of our most popular teachers and has taught several successful terms of school in the county. The groom is the son of Mrs. Carrie Thune, and is well and favorably known to our readers. He is engaged in farming, and has a handsome six-room bungalow on his farm in readiness for his bride.

The congratulations on this happy event are numerous and The Times is greatly pleased on this occasion to add its hearty good wishes to those being so fully extended.
