Graham McCulloch was up from his farm near Jessie, last Friday, and arranged with The Times for advertising an auction sale of his personal property to be held on Tuesday, Feb. 26. A full list of the property is printed on the first page of this issue. Mr. McCulloch will retire from farming. He has closed a deal with J. W. Ressler and O. M. Rogney of Jessie, whereby he becomes the owner of the Ressler hardware store and Mr. Rogney's residence property. In the trade Mr. Ressler secures 268 acres and Mr. Rogney a quarter section. Mr. McCulloch expects to take possession about March 1.
