

C. E. Peterson attended to business matters at Jessie last Friday, and while there took in the production of "Deacon Dubbs", a rural comedy drama, presented by Jessie home talent that evening. The characters were well selected and each and every one had their parts well memorized. Plans are being made to stage the play in Binford on Friday, Feb. 28, so be on hand that night when the curtain goes up for a couple of hours good entertainment.