

test ends April 1st.

The Jessie play "A Little Clodhopper", which was presented in Binford Friday evening was well attended. The show was presented by Jessie home talent, and each and every character took their parts very well indeed. The play was a three-act comedy, and contained a good plot. Special features between acts were furnished by Mr. Brix, who entertained with two solos and Miss Lillian Young, who gave a reading in darky dialect which was very much enjoyed. The receipts from the show amounted to about $76, which will be used to help pay for a school furnace at Jessie. A large crowd remained for the dance given following the play.

By a Community Club Reporter