

JESSIE NEWS.

E. A. Retzlaff was a Cooperstown passenger Tuesday.

Chris Clauson was a caller in our town Wednesday.

F. E. Rule and wife autoed to Cooperstown, Sunday.

Jas. Strand spent Sunday with friends at Hannaford.

James Strand became the owner of a Ford car last week.

P. A. Lysne, of Pekin, transacted business in Jessie, Monday.

Graham McCulloch transacted business in Binford Friday.

Col. Mark is looking after business interests in Jessie this week.

Knut Thompson of Cooperstown, was a Jessie visitor Thursday.

F. H. Tollefson and A. F. Brix were Cooperstown visitors Saturday.

Joe Ressler and wife spent Sunday at the home of Tice chandler.

Oscar Rogne, of Cooperstown, was a business visitor in Jessie Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Detwiler spent Sunday at the home of H. St. John.

A 9-pound baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lowe, last Thursday.

Will and Gerard Kueper of Chicago, arrived Monday for a visit with their brother, F. H. Kueper.

Jas. Strand, Harry St. John and Fred Rule attended Masonic lodge at Cooperstown Monday evening.

Miss Gladys Hogan spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, returning to Cooperstown Sunday.

Sheriff Nelson was in Jessie Wednesday, and had some necessary repairs made on his car while here.

Mrs. Simon Jenson gave a party for her son, Julius, Tuesday, afternoon, the occasion being his birthday.

George Bertie and Julius Folland of Minneapolis arrived in Jessie, Tuesday, and will work in this vicinity this season.

W. J. Dalton and wife are away on a short vacation this week. C. R. Opsahl of Davonport, is taking Mr. Dalton's place at the depot.

John Skei was a Jessie caller last week, on his way to the farm he has lately vacated, where he had his car stored. He returned with it to his new home near McHenry.

A merry party of little folks gathered at the St. John home on Saturday, to help Master Richard celebrate his seventh birthday. Various games were played, and a fine time was had by all.

Methodist church services were held in the schoolhouse, Sunday, and we are glad to say, will be continued every other Sunday. These meetings are of great benefit to the community and every one should turn out and help make them a success.

A deal was closed last week where by W. H. Mark sold his entire stock of general merchandise to Albert Retzlaff and Carl Rickford. The new owners have taken possession. Mr. Tollefson, the late manager, will remain in Jessie for some time yet as his future plans are indefinite.