

JESSIE NEWS

Al Iverson was a Binford caller Saturday.

Emil Amundson was a Jessie caller Saturday.

Carl Toenberg went to Binford on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Barmingham is sewing for Mrs. Toenberg this week.

F. H. Tollefson and Fred Rickford were Binford callers last Friday.

Mrs. W. H. Mark returned to her home at Jamestown Wednesday.

Sam Erickson has been employed by Robert Thorn the past few days.

Don't fail to attend the big dance in the Jessie hall, Saturday evening, May 1.

Bert Campbell and wife were guests at the home of Otto Retzlaff Sunday.

F. E. Rule, Jas. Strand and Harry St. John autoed to Cooperstown Monday.

Misses Bouten and Baker and A. F. Brix were passengers for Cooperstown Friday.

Fred Toenberg was ill a few days last week, but is now able to be around again.

Mr. Atchison, auditor for the Great Western elevator, transacted business in Jessie Monday.

Mrs. Toenberg, Mrs. O. Retzlaff, Mrs. Rule and Dave Wilcox autoed to Cooperstown Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Tollefson were entertained by C. P. Dahl and Miss Anderson Saturday evening.

Mr. Cook, of Minneapolis, is visiting relatives in Jessie this week. He is an uncle of Carl Rickford.

E. A. Retzlaff has been laid up with a lame back for a few days, but at present is able to be around again.

While in Jessie last week, Lars Anderson's team became frightened and ran away. Fortunately no one was hurt.

While in Jessie last week, Mansfield Ronningen had the misfortune of losing the wheel off his car, and broke the axle.

Mrs. W. H. Stevens, of Wimbledon, who has been visiting at the F. H. Tollefson home, returned to Wimbledon Wednesday.

Mr. Bernhard Christianson and son, of Bergen, Norway, and Mr. J. Nelson of Minneapolis, are visiting at the O. L. Anderson home.

There were no services in Jessie Sunday, owing to the bad roads. Rev. Bennett was unable to make the trip with his automobile.

Jessie was visited by an aeroplane for the first time last Saturday, and naturally attracted a large crowd. Owing to the approaching storm, the aviator thought best not to stop long and was soon on his way.

For Treasurer

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Treasurer of Griggs county, subject to the verdict of the county's voters in the June primary election. Should I be nominated and elected, I pledge myself to attend to the duties of the office in businesslike manner and to serve the people with all fidelity.

MARTIN F. NELSON

For the latest styles and best workmanship in men's clothing try Royal Tailor made suits.—P. A. Overby.