

JESSIE NEWS.

Harry Pfeifer returned home from Fargo Saturday.

Carl Toenberg was a Cooperstown passenger Saturday.

Harry St. John and wife autoed to Cooperstown Sunday.

Miss Ruth Papenfuss returned from Fargo Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Detwiler were Jessie callers Saturday.

Lee Green and Julius Sletten autoed to Cooperstown Friday.

Mrs. Albert Rickford was a Cooperstown passenger Thursday.

Maynard Johnson is now employed on the George Higgins farm.

C. P. Dahl went to Cooperstown, Wednesday, on a business trip.

Miss Bertha Tweed left for Fargo Monday, to finish her school there.

Miss Irene Ressler returned home Friday for a short vacation at home.

John Johnson and Arne Arneson transacted business in Jessie Thursday.

A sister of Matt Hiller is here on a visit with the Hiller boys this week.

The Truscott boys, of Binford, spent a few days with Jessie friends this week.

Fred and Elizabeth Rickford autoed to Cooperstown Friday to attend church services.

Mrs. E. W. Blackwell of Cooperstown, visited at the 'Otto Retzlaff home, Wednesday.

Miss Inez Hemerlin, of Cooperstown, is spending a few days with Jessie friends.

Mrs. Fred Tollefson and Miss Agnes Anderson were Jamestown passengers Friday.

Easter services were held in the Catholic church Sunday. A large attendance is reported.

Sophie Trost returned from Cooperstown, Friday, where she has been visiting with friends.

Miss Loftus, of Grand Forks, spent Saturday with our teachers, the Misses Baker and Bouton.

Tice Chandler and family have returned to Jessie and are employed by Robert Thorn for the season.

School was closed on Friday and our teachers enjoyed a holiday at their homes, returning Saturday.

Mrs. Max Wild returned home on Friday after spending a few days visiting with relatives near Sutton.

Miss Barfuss and Miss Alice Amlie were Jessie callers Saturday. Miss Amlie is visiting at the Barfuss home.

Skating was quite a sport in Jessie last week, when young and old enjoyed themselves on the pond near the depot.

A. Eggermont of Moline, Ill., arrived Thursday and will work for his brother, Alfons Eggermont, this season.

Geo. Hustad was in Jessie Saturday. He is contractor for the wiring and installing of the electric light plant, which expects to run a line through Jessie.

The home of Ben Pfeifer seems to be visited with a streak of bad luck this week, five members of the family being ill, and each suffering a different ailment.