

JESSIE NEWS

Julius Sletten has lately purchased a Maxwell auto.

Julius Worst was a Cooperstown passenger Thursday.

Mr. St. John and Mr. Egemon autoed to McVillie Monday.

Harry Blakeslee, of Sterling, Ill. was a Jessie caller Monday.

Mr. Fitzgerald, of Jamestown, is visiting at the Tollefson home this week.

Miss Elizabeth Meldahl, of Valley City is visiting at the Albert Rickford home.

H. St. John and family were guests at the N. O. Hougen cottage at the lake last week.

A large number of Jessie people attended the show in Cooperstown Friday evening.

Mrs. Scott, of Charles City, Iowa, was the guest of Mrs. Graham McCulloch last week.

Eugene Wild states he has rented Carl Rickfords quarter near Jessie for the coming year.

Oscar Anderson went to Cooperstown Thursday to have his adenoids and tonsils removed.

Mrs. Mary Wild and son, Chester, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson, Saturday.

Mrs. W. W. Boyle, of Binford, is the guest of Mrs. Nettie Remund at the home of Fred Schlins.

H. St. John will dispose of his household goods at auction sale at his residence in Jessie, Saturday afternoon, Aug. 14.

Mrs. Graham McCulloch was the guest of Mrs. Aug. Evers, of Binford last week and attended the Roundup celebration at Devils Lake while away.

Miss Mae Bouten was in Jesise between trains Thursday, looking up a boarding place, and will stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ketter during the school term.

C. P. Dahl drove Norman McCulloch to Hannaford, where they took the train for Rochester, Minn. Mr. McCulloch is feeling much worse we are sorry to state and local physicians advised him to go there for a thorough examination.

A very happy family reunion occurred at Lake Willow last Sunday, when Mrs. Otto Retzlaff entertained forty nine members of the Retzlaff family, who came from Kenmare, Springbrook, Carrington, and Aneta, and different parts of the state. Mrs. A. Stewart, sister of Otto Retzlaff of Springbrook, N. D. was the guest of honor.