

JESSIE NEWS

C. P. Dahl visited in St. Paul last week.

Harry St. John motored to Fargo Friday.

Joe Stahl, of Binford, was a Jessie visitor, Tuesday.

Mrs. L. Ruud autoed to Cooperstown last Friday.

Max Wild spent Sunday with relatives in Sutton.

Mrs. Robert Thorn returned from Fargo, Wednesday.

N. O. Haugen, of McVille, was a business caller, Wednesday.

Emil Nelson, of Cooperstown, was a caller in Jessie, Saturday.

Mrs. Toenberg and son, Finn, were in Jessie on business, Friday.

James Strand and Fred Rickford motored to Valley City, Saturday.

Miss Inez Hemerlin is visiting at the Ole L. Anderson home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole L. Anderson were Fargo passengers Thursday, returning Saturday.

Mrs. F. H. Tollefson returned from Jamestown, Monday, where she had been visiting relatives.

Miss Irene Ketter returned home Monday, after a few days visit with friends in Cando, N. Dak.

Jas. McCulloch, of Fargo, is visiting with relatives this week, and looking after his farming interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry St. John were entertained at the home of Otto Retzlaff, Wednesday evening, and at the home of J. W. Ressler on Tuesday of last week.

O. E. Thorn was in Jessie between trains Monday. He states that Mrs. Thorn is in a very serious condition and he returned to her bedside in the hospital at Fargo the same day.