

JESSIE NEWS.

Ludvig Ruud was a Binford passenger Tuesday.

Ole O. Anderson is busy hauling wheat to Jessie this week.

John and Chas. Becherl were Cooperstown passengers Tuesday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ressler, a girl, on Wednesday, Dec. 3rd.

Mrs. Robert Thorn is visiting relatives in Cooperstown this week.

Gunder Trostad and Henry Alfson transacted business in Jessie Tuesday.

Bert Mark and Maynard Tweed were Binford callers between trains Tuesday.

Mrs. J. W. Ressler is confined to her bed this week, suffering from a severe cold.

Sam Erickson has lately been employed as second man at the Farmer's elevator.

Wm. Stevens, of Wimbledon, is spending a few days at the Fred Tollefson home this week.

Steffen Bros. were in Jessie this week, and shipped twelve cars of baled hay to Bloomfield, Montana.

Ole Baacken returned on Tuesday from Minneapolis, Fargo, and other points of interest which he visited.

J. Mack Stonewall and Mrs. Anna Terpstra, of Scobey, Montana, are visiting with Tice Chandler and family.

Oscar Tweed is in Fargo this week and will have his tonsils removed, as they have been troubling him a great deal of late.

Miss Irene Chandler has been absent from school the past week on account of a severe cold, but is improving at present.

While unloading lumber at the Crane-Johnson yards, Saturday Max Wild was slightly injured by a plank which slipped, and struck him upon the head. He is able to be around at present.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCulloch entertained friends last Friday, at their home just west of town. A quilting bee offered excellent entertainment for the ladies in the afternoon, and in the evening the guests were treated to a fine turkey dinner; whist and music were indulged in until a late hour, when all departed for their homes, feeling they had been royally entertained.