

JESSIE NEWS.

Oscar Trostad is hauling flax this week.

Arne Arneson was seen on our streets Thursday.

Frank Graber hauled hay for Dave Wilcox, Thursday.

Julius Sletten is having a well dug on his home this week.

Clarence Ronnegan was a Cooperstown passenger Saturday.

Mrs. R. I. Thorn returned from Cooperstown Wednesday.

Felix Pella, Jr. went to Cooperstown on business, Saturday.

Emil Wurst visited at the office of Dr. Ringlee, at Binford, Friday.

Magnus Hegvick, of near Binford, is hauling wheat to Jessie this week.

Emil Amundson was a Jessie caller last week, buying up cattle to ship.

John Kalvik is helping the Carpenter Brothers haul rye to Jessie this week.

W. H. Mark was in town this week, looking after his business interests.

Bert Campbell and son, Cecil, transacted business in Jessie, Wednesday.

The families of R. I. Thorn and O. E. Thorn visited at Gilbert Olson's, Sunday.

Etho Husel was a Fargo passenger Tuesday, where he went to consult with doctors.

Misses Benton and Baker will give a Christmas party to their pupils on Friday, Dec 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rickford visited friends in Cooperstown Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

A few people from Jessie attended the dance at Binford Friday night. A good time is reported.

Palmer Peterson has left Julius Thorn's employ, and is now working at the farm of O. L. Anderson.

Mrs. O. E. Retzlaff and Mrs. F. E. Rule were Cooperstown visitors on Wednesday, returning Thursday.

Gus Suess showed his ability as a marksman last week, when he shot a red fox on his farm near Jessie.

Eddie and Ida Zimprich are visiting relatives and friends at St. Paul, Janesville, and Waterville, Minnesota.

Mrs. John Detwiler was a Jessie visitor Wednesday. She took the passenger in the evening for Cooperstown.

Misses Benton and Baker, and Jas. A. Strand and Bruce LaPlante attended the social at the Fiebigger school Friday.

Mrs. Ida Wickam of Hannaford, who has been keeping house for Mrs. Wilkinson, while she was absent, returned to her home Thursday.

H. St. John, Lee Green and C. P. Dahl attended the K. P. lodge at Cooperstown Thursday. C. P. was initiated into the second degree.

Vail Barnes, formerly of Nashua, Montana, but at present partner of M. E. Wilkinson, returned to his former home, Thursday for a few weeks visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McCulloch left for Fargo Thursday, where Mr. McCulloch will seek medical aid. He has been in poor health since returning from California.

John Hovel, who has been working at the farm of Matt Hovel, near Pekin, was in Jessie this week, and visited a day with relatives at Cooperstown before returning to work.

The basket social at the Fiebigger school given Friday evening, Dec. 12, was a financial and social success, having raised in the neighborhood of $40.00. There was a small crowd, on account of the severity of the weather, but a good time is reported. This school is taught by Miss Helen Baker.

M. E. Wilkinson returned Wednesday from Rochester, Minnesota, where he has been consulting physicians. Mr. Wilkinson has been in poor health for some time, and the doctors say a minor operation will be necessary some time in the future. Mrs. Wilkinson returned with him, after having spent a few weeks with relatives at Waterville, Minnesota.