

JESSIE NEWS.

Ed and Albert Trost are home for the holidays.

John Skei is hauling grain to Jessie this week.

W. H. Mark is visiting relatives in Jessie this week.

Mrs. Gus Suess was a Binford passenger, Monday.

C. P. Dahl was a Cooperstown passenger, Thursday.

Gunder Trostad was a business in Jessie Tuesday.

Henry Lowe visited friends at Cooperstown over Sunday.

Mrs. James McCulloch returned from Fargo Thursday.

Mrs. Emil Kuntz was in Binford between trains Tuesday.

Frank Bednar was a Jessie visitor Saturday between trains.

Harry St. John was a business caller in Cooperstown, Friday.

A. M. Hemerlin, of Cooperstown, was a Jessie caller Tuesday.

Anton Becherl bought two Belgian hares of Prof. Sigge last week.

Emil Kuntz and family spent Sunday at the home of Felix Pella.

Miss Irene Ressler returned home from Cooperstown, Wednesday.

Mrs. Ludvig Hoff, of Minot, visited at the St. John home last week.

Miss Ellen Pfeifer visited at the home of E. B. Ressler the past week.

A. P. Rusten, of near McVile, hauled a load of hogs to Jessie Friday.

Emil Amundson shipped a carload of cattle and hogs to St. Paul, last Friday.

Florence and Gladys Hogan arrived to spend the holidays with their parents.

Mrs. W. J. Dalton left for Minneapolis, Friday, where she will do her Christmas shopping.

Mrs. Otto Retzlaff and Mrs. Graham McCulloch were Christmas shoppers in Binford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Wild were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rickford last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Ruth Papenfus, who teaches the Hemerlin school, left for her home at Marion, N. D., Friday.

Emil Dusbabek, of Scobey, Montana, arrived Friday, in time to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Reid.

Herman Hovel left Saturday for Fargo, where he expects to enter St. John's hospital to be operated upon for appendicitis.

Misses Ellen and Carlisle Pfeifer returned home Wednesday from Cooperstown where they have been attending school.

Miller S. Vance of Omamee, N. Dak., arrived Saturday and will teach the school which is being held temporarily in the home of Herman Hovel.

Eddie, Elmer, Fred and Bert Arndt, Albert Rickford and Manley Ressler returned home Saturday for the holidays. These boys have been attending school at Fargo.

The funeral services for Mrs. J. D. Reid of Binford, were held at the Catholic church Saturday morning at ten o'clock. A very large gathering was present, and the many beautiful floral offerings which covered the casket, testified to the great esteem and love in which Mrs. Reid was held by her friends. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.