

JESSIE NEWS.

C. P. Dahl was a passenger for Fargo Monday.

Frank Graber was seen on our streets Thursday.

Etho Husel was a Cooperstown passenger Monday.

Mrs. Fred Toenberg was a Walum visitor Wednesday last.

Ed. Zimprich transacted business in Cooperstown Thursday.

Henry Alfson and wife were shopping in Jessie Thursday.

F. Butler of Walum visited at the Toenberg home Wednesday.

Miss Ovedia Anderson returned home from school Thursday.

Albert Retzlaff and family spent Sunday at the Carl Rickford home.

Miss Evangeline Roney visited with Miss Muriel Thorn last week.

Mrs. Hazard of Cooperstown visited at the St. John home last week.

F. E. Rule received a car of ice Thursday from the Detroit Ice Co.

B. E. Klemish of Langdon, N. D. is visiting at the Ed. J. Fiebigger home.

Miss Helen Baker visited her sister at the Graham McCulloch home Friday.

Ben R. Pfeifer, Ben Pfeifer Jr. and Frank Pfeifer journeyed to Cooperstown Monday.

Dr. Winsloe was up last week and made a professional visit at the Norman McCulloch farm.

Tice Chandler and wife returned Friday and will be employed on the Norman McCulloch farm.

The schools have been closed on account of flu and the teachers departed for their homes Saturday.

Mrs. La Plant and Miss Ethel returned home Wednesday, after a visit with relatives in Minneapolis, Kansas.

Finn Toenberg arrived Thursday and left the following Monday for Walum where he has secured employment.

Frank Pfeifer returned to Jessie Friday after an extended stay at Washington, D. C., New York, and other eastern cities.

The passenger managed to crawl as far as Jessie Saturday, but as the snow plow got stuck in the drifts west of Jessie, they returned from here to Sanborn that evening. Rob Thorn drove the mail and ten passengers in his bob sled to Binford that evening.