

JESSIE NEWS.

Harry St. John was a Cooperstown visitor Friday.

O. M. Rogney transacted business in Jessie Monday.

John Slaber was a business caller in Jessie Tuesday.

Chris Clausen transacted business in Jessie last week.

Mrs. John Detwiler visited friends in Jessie Wednesday.

*Frank Graber was in Jessie, on business last Friday.

Mrs. Robert Thorn was a Binford passenger Thursday.

Mrs. Sam Erickson is reported on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Campbell were Jessie callers last Tuesday.

Émil Wurst was a Binford passenger between trains Monday.

Mrs. W. J. Dalton was a Binford caller between trains Thursday.

Oscar L. Olson reports he will be a candidate for County Treasurer.

Otto Retzlaff and wife made a business trip to Cooperstown Monday.

Hans Hanstad of Binford transacted business in Jessie Wednesday.

Miss Cleora Simpson spent her vacation at Wimbledon with her parents.

A. F. Brix, teacher of the Arndt school visited friends in Jessie last week.

Ole L. Anderson and wife left on Monday for a visit with relatives in Minneapolis.

Miss Gabrielle Eggermont visited with friends in Cooperstown a few days last week.

Theodore and Clara Miller returned home from Minneapolis last Thursday.

Miss Norma Thorn of Binford, was visiting her cousins at the Robert Thorn home last week.

Mrs. Fred Tollefson and son, Paul, left Thursday for a visit with relatives at Jamestown, N. D.

John Atchison, auditor for the Great Western Elevator, transacted business in Jessie last week.

Adolph Skarin returned from Minneapolis Thursday where he spent a week visiting relatives.

Ed Thorn went to Mandan, N. D., last where he attended the North Dakota Dairy Men's Association.

Mrs. F. W. Blackwell and daughter, Ruth, spent Saturday, between trains at the home of Otto Retzlaff.

Miss Elizabeth Rickford returned home from Fargo Saturday, having completed her term of work at the college.

T. Tweed returned from Fargo last week. J. Thompson came with him and is visiting at the home of John Hogan.

Mrs. Max Wild returned Friday from Revere, and her daughter, Mrs. Milo Kingsley returned with her for an extended visit.

Julius Wurst returned home Saturday, from Casselton, where he attended the funeral of the father of Mrs. Ed. J. Fiebiger.

Ed. J. Fiebiger and wife returned from Casselton Friday, where they had been to attend the funeral of Mrs. Fiebiger's father.

Miller Vance left for his home at Amenia, N. D., last Wednesday for a short visit with relatives, his school being closed on account of the flu.

Manley Ressler departed for Fargo Tuesday after a short visit with his parents here. He has obtained employment in a Confectionary store.