

JESSIE NEWS.

Louis Westberg transacted business in Jessie Monday.

Rudolph Trost was a Cooperstown passenger Monday.

L. Ruud and wife returned from Cooperstown Friday.

Miss Myrtle Black was a passenger to Binford Monday.

Ed. Trost was a Binford caller Monday between trains.

Mrs. W. J. Dalton returned from the Twin Cities Wednesday.

Will McCulloch visited at the Graham McCulloch home Friday.

Mark King, of Binford transacted business in Jessie Saturday.

Manly and Irene Ressler were in Binford between trains Friday.

Ed Zimprich and Frank Arndt were Binford passengers Wednesday.

Ed. Hildestead and wife spent Christmas at the home of Sam Erickson.

Emil Dusbabek departed for his home at Scobey, Montana, Monday last.

Miss Gerda Watne, who has been in Fargo for some time, arrived here Monday.

Miss Myrtle Everson of Walum is spending the week at the home of Fred Toenberg.

Andrew Anderson and Fred Fosse were renewing old friendships in Jessie last week.

Michael Skrataas, of Palmer, Saskatchewan, Canada, is visiting at the home of Olof Vaade.

Miss Bertha Rickford arrived Tuesday and will spend the Yuletide season with her parents.

Miss Lizzie Rickford returned from Fargo Wednesday, when she has been attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hazard and Lucius Hazard and wife spent Christmas at the St. John home.

Carl Rickford and wife ate their Christmas dinner with Mrs. Rickford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Retzlaff.

Dr. J. A. H. Winsloe was a caller in Jessie Monday, and made a professional visit at the farm of Barney Cunningham.

Thor Nelson and family, Olof Vaade and family and Carl Arneson, ate turkey at the home of Einar Bardahl Thursday.

Miss Inez Hemerlin of Cooperstown came on the passenger Tuesday, to attend the social at the McCulloch school.

Mrs. Joe Terpstra of Scobey, Mont. is a guest at the Tice Chandler home this week. Mrs. Terpstra is a sister of Mrs. Chandler.

Harry Pfeifer, who has been employed at the Gardner barber shop of Fargo, returned home for the holidays Tuesday.

Jack Tracy of Fargo, train master was in town Saturday, looking up a place of residence for our depot agent, Mr. Dalton.

Mrs. Geo. Barningham of Minot, Carl Everson of Minneapolis, and Alex Horn of Sask., Canada, are visiting at the home of H. M. Wahl.

A skating party, made up of Jessie young people, was held at Long Lake last Monday evening. The young ladies provided a lunch and all in attendance report a fine time.

A very successful basket social was held in the McCulloch school, last Tuesday evening, under the management of Miss Agnes Anderson, teacher. Over $80.00 was raised and a good time was had by all.

Joe Clemens wore a long face for a short time Wednesday afternoon, after he lost his purse, containing $100. He soon brightened up however, when it was restored to him by the finder, F. E. Rule, who picked it up on the street.

The house occupied by W. J. Dalton burned to the ground Tuesday evening. Mr. Dalton arose at his usual hour, made a fire in the stove, and went to the depot to attend to his work there. After a short time he chanced to look out the window, and saw the house in flames, but the fire had gained such headway, nothing could be saved, and all furniture and clothing were destroyed. The loss of the furniture was partly covered by insurance.