

JESSIE NEWS.

Louis Ruud was a Binford caller Saturday.

Ben Pfeifer was a Binford passenger, Thursday.

Even Peterson is hauling grain to Jessie this week.

Ed Arndt returned to school at Fargo, Monday.

Louis LaPlant is hauling grain to Jessie this week.

Jake Pella was a Cooperstown passenger Thursday.

Wm. Adrian is busy hauling grain to Jessie this week.

Bert Mark, the barber, is reported on the sick list this week.

James Strand was a business caller in Hannaford, Friday.

Gunder Trostad transacted business in Jessie, Wednesday.

Carl Rickford and wife entertained friends Friday evening.

W. J. Dalton and wife departed for Minneapolis, Saturday.

Lee Green and C. P. Dahl were in Cooperstown, Thursday.

Julius Thorn shipped a carload of cattle to St. Paul Saturday.

James McCulloch was a passenger to Grand Forks, Wednesday.

N. O. Haugen visited over Sunday at the home of Harry St. John.

O. E. Ellefson, of Aneta, was in Jessie, Wednesday, on business.

E. B. Ressler and family were Cooperstown visitors, Saturday.

Miss Bertha Tweed is attending the Normal school at Valley City.

Mrs. Hazard, of Cooperstown, visited at the St. John home, Friday.

Fred Williams, of Moorhead, was calling on friends in Jessie last week.

Joe Zimprich went to Fargo this week to attend an automobile school.

Two young ladies from Cooperstown were canvassing in Jessie Saturday.

Julius Sletten was unfortunate last week, in losing both a horse and a calf.

Robert and Donald Truscott visited at the Graham McCulloch home last week.

Jno. Becherl and Ben Keninger went to Cooperstown Saturday on business.

Mrs. Jas. and Mrs. Graham McCulloch attended lodge at Binford, Thursday.

Mr. Vance, teacher at the Hovel school was a Cooperstown passenger Friday evening.

Harry Pfeifer left Monday to take up his duties as barber in the Gardner hotel at Fargo.

Misses Ellen and Caroline Pfeifer left for Cooperstown Monday, to take up their school work.

Tice Chandler left Monday for Detroit, Minn. Mrs. Chandler and daughter will remain for awhile at the home of Joe Ressler.

Mr. and Mrs. Tollef Tweed and daughter, Miss Dina, left for Fargo, Tuesday. Mrs. Tweed is in poor health and will be nursed by her daughter at St. Luke's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Wild entertained a large number of friends Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wild and Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson, who are spending the week at home with their parents.