

The Binford Times

PUBLISHED THURSDAYS

C. E. PETERSON

Entered at the postoffice at Binford, North Dakota, as second class matter.

JESSIE NEWS.

Gunder Trostad was a Fargo passenger Monday.

C. P. Dahl was a Cooperstown visitor Thursday.

Julius Wurst was a Cooperstown caller Thursday.

Cecil Campbell was seen on our streets Thursday.

Ed Thorn attended the convention at Fargo Thursday.

N. O. Haugen visited with friends in Jessie last week.

Harry St. John was a Cooperstown visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McCulloch were Binford callers Monday.

Louis Westburg is now at home, after a brief visit at Fargo.

Felix Pella attended to business matters in Binford Saturday.

Bert Campbell transacted business in Jessie Monday of last week.

Barney Cunningham and L. Ruud were Binford visitors Saturday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sletten, Thursday, Jan. 22nd, a boy.

John Skei and wife took the train from Jessie to Cooperstown Tuesday.

Chas. Loudon, of Cooperstown, transacted business in Jessie, Wednesday.

There was no school Friday forenoon on account of the severity of the weather but the building was warmed up sufficiently for work to be resumed in the afternoon.

Wm. Trost drove to Binford Saturday and returned with a load of coal.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry St. John entertained a few friends Sunday afternoon.

Herman Lowe, of Cooperstown, visited here with his brother, Emil, Saturday.

Miss Muriel Thorn and Irving Thorn visited friends in Binford, Saturday.

Miss Irene Ressler returned Saturday for an over Sunday visit with her parents.

A meeting of the stock holders of the local bank, was held at the state bank Wednesday.

Herman Hovel and daughter, Christine drove to Cooperstown Monday on business.

C. H. Hagen, who is employed by Lee Green, was a passenger to Cooperstown Saturday.

Mrs. Otto Retzlaff visited at the Blackwell home in Cooperstown, Thursday, returning Friday.

Will Stringer was up from Cooperstown and assisted in furnishing the music for the Leap Year dance.

Mr. Erling Lee and Miss Thora Hankon of Alberta Canada arrived Saturday for a visit at the home of S. W. Edland, east of Jessie.

The Leap Year dance held Saturday was well attended, considering the extreme cold, and those present all report a most enjoyable time.

Albert Wells, of Ontario, was visiting old friends in Jessie last week. As he was about to leave our midst, he decided to sell his overcoat, the weather being so mild. (?) The cashier of the State bank proved a good auctioneer, as it went for a big price.

Dr. Westley made a professional call on Mrs. Fred Toenberg last week. Altho quite sick at that time Mrs. Toenberg, is improving rapidly.

Mrs. George Barningham, who is visiting at the H. M. Wahl home, went to Cooperstown last week to take in the Skarning entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalton left for a business trip to Minneapolis and White Bear, Minnesota, Saturday. Leonard is stopping at the hotel during their absence.

Oscar Rogney and M. Cousin of Cooperstown were in town Thursday and went out to the Ben Pfeifer farm to inspect the Pfeifer Straw and Gas Producer, which has lately been installed. This machine is the invention of Frank and Ben Pfeifer and improved on by Ben Pfeifer Jr. It produces light, heat and power from straw and promises to rank high among the inventions of the present time.

Church Announcements.

LUTHERAN FREE CHURCH
L. M. HALLING, PASTOR

Services in Gethsemane on Feb. 1, at 11 a. m.

Services in Willow on Feb. 8, at 11 a. m.

Rid your horses of bots and worms with a "Sur-Shot" bot and worm remover. "A Sur-Shot" never fails. This preparation is the result of months of experimenting and research work with various substances designed for the removal of bots and nose-fly grubs from the stomach and worms from the intestines of the horse. Price $3.00 and $5.00 including instrument.—Dahlin's Liv-