

JESSIE NEWS

Julius Warst purchased a new Ford Saturday.

N. O. Hougen was a Jessie visitor Thursday.

C. P. Dahl returned from Minneapolis Thursday.

George McCulloch is now working for Lee-Green.

Ruth Holloway is visiting at the home of Paul Rickford.

Vaif Barnes and Marion Wilkinson autoed to Hannaford, Saturday.

Ed. Arndt was a Cooperstown passenger on the freight Tuesday.

J. H. Rule, of Belmont, Iowa, is here visiting his son, F. H. Rule.

Miss Anna Jones is visiting at the home of George Higgins north of town.

A large crowd went from Jessie to attend the Nonpartisan picnic, Friday.

Max Wild and wife went to Revere Sunday to visit his daughter and family.

Mr. John Klenen, of Minneapolis is here visiting at the Sam Erickson home.

Will McCulloch and wife visited at the Norman McCulloch home, Tuesday.

E. O. Dilling, owner of the Jessie Elevator, transacted business in Jessie last week.

Albert Trost returned home Monday. He has been attending school in Minneapolis.

F. E. Rule and family spent Sunday at the lake, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Retzloff.

Jean Hogan returned from Minneapolis, Wednesday, after spending a week visiting friends.

Max Wild and Wm Wilkinson have now finished digging the basement under the Catholic Church.

H. St. John and family and Mr. Lucius Hazard spent Saturday and Sunday at Red Willow lake.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Miller, of Fargo, spent the first of the week with their daughter, Mrs. Dalrymple.

Mrs. F. H. Tollefson and Mrs. Carl Rickford entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Dalrymple.

Jack Ressler and Arthur Anderson had a slight auto accident last Wednesday, the cars colliding as they passed on a narrow road. Fortunately no one was injured and Mr. Anderson's car was not greatly damaged.

The Catholic ladies aid society met at the Herman Hovel home last Thursday, and a large attendance is reported. They put on a dance in the barn of George Painter, Friday evening, and a very large sum was realized.

Dave Sansborn was a Jessie visitor Monday.

Bertha Tweed returned home Thursday.

Julius Thorn shipped a load of hogs Thursday, to St. Paul.

Mrs. H. St. John returned home from Cooperstown, Saturday.

Allen Ressler is now traveling for the Fuller Brush Co. of Fargo.

Eugene Wild spent a few days at home with his parents last week.

Carl Thornberg went to Cooperstown Wednesday to visit his sister.

The Farmers Elevator Co. had a meeting in Rules Hall last Saturday.

Miss Luella Wogaland visited with the Fred Toenberg family last week.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alfons Eggermont, Wednesday June 23.

A telephone meeting was held here last week and a large attendance is reported.

Miss Hilda Watne returned home Monday. She had been attending school in Fargo, the past year.

F. E. Rule, J. H. Rule, Jas. Strand and Fred Tollefson attended the ball game at Cooperstown, Thursday.

Manley Ressler returned home from Montana, Wednesday. Manley has been ill, but is looking well at present.

John Bechel and family left by auto, for Grand Rapids, N. D., where they will visit with Adolph Arndt and family.

Rob. Thorn and family returned home Monday from Cadogan, Can., where they went by auto. They re-

John Hogan was a Fargo passenger Saturday and spent Sunday with Mrs. Hogan who is ill at St. Luke's hospital. Mr. Hogan returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Johnson and Eric Johnson of Fillmore Co. arrived in Jessie Saturday, and are visiting at the home of O. A. Ronningen. port a very pleasant journey.

Wm. Miller and family of Pekin, had the misfortune of breaking an axle on their car, last week, while in Jessie. Mrs. Emil Retzloff took them home in her car.

Announcements of the wedding of Lillian Williams and Harry Deswillier were received in Jessie last week. These young people are well known here and have many friends who wish them a very happy future.

Torger O. Rogne was a business visitor in Cooperstown, Tuesday.

Who said candy?—We certainly have it.—Anderson's Pharmacy

Remember

That every added subscriber helps to make this paper better for everybody