

Political Rally

A picnic will be held at the Fluto Grove, east of Cooperstown, on Thursday June 24

Atty. Gen. Langer and Hon. R. A. Nestos

will speak at 2 P. M.

Everybody welcome. A good place and a good cause. Come out and help celebrate. There will be two good brass bands, a fine Glee club and other amusements.

for the passage of the classification act which increased the assessed value upon farms lands from 30 per cent to the full value in 1917 to 100 per cent in 1919, thereby opening the way for the increased tax burden of 1919, as every farmer was fully advised upon receipt of his tax receipt.

"Big business, public utilities and other corporations seem to have more influence with the Townley administration than with any former administration of the state."

JESSIE NEWS

F. E. Rule and family autoed to Cooperstown Sunday.

Thor Nelson and family spent Sunday at the home of Olaf Vaade.

C. P. Dahl went to Minneapolis Thursday.

Carl Rickford and wife were Valley City passengers last week.

Mr. Fred Toenberg is redecorating an interior of the bank this week.

Johnnie Johnson and Arne Arneson were in town Monday.

Marion Wilkinson left for Fargo, Wednesday, on a business trip.

Mrs. E. O. Erickson spent a few days last week at the St. John home.

Bill Warner of Sutton and his brother, Sol, of Montana, were Jessie callers last week.

Louis Ruud autoed to Pekin, Monday and reported a cloudburst on his way home.

F. H. Tollefson and family attended the ball game at McHenry Sunday.

Mrs. Albert Rickford and son, Gerald, are visiting with relatives in Minneapolis, this week.

Robert Thorn and family, left for Cadogen, Canada, Friday. They expect to make the entire trip by auto.

Emil Kuntz and Harry Pfeifer are plowing the ground around the Catholic church and preparing to set out trees.

H. O. Bach, pastor of the West Prairie church left Friday for Norway, where he will visit his parents for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wild and Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Jackson spent Sunday at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Max Wild.

Robert Pratt, Fred Detwiler, Jack Rossler and Wm. La Plant attended a supervisor meeting held in Jessie Monday.

Otto Retzlaff and family, Jack Rossler and family and Mr. and Mrs. Graham McCulloch spent Sunday at Lake Willow.

H. St. John, E. A. Retzlaff and Graham McCulloch attended a telephone meeting in the country Saturday evening.

Norman McCulloch returned home Monday, looking very much improved in health. Mr. McCulloch has been spending the winter in Los Angeles.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid Society met the home of Ole L. Anderson last Thursday. A very large attendance was reported and a great many Jessie ladies who were there, spent a most enjoyable afternoon.

E. A. Retzlaff, Jas. Strand, F. H. Tollefson and Fred Rule enjoyed a very successful fishing trip at Red Willow Lake, Friday evening. Some of the largest of the finny tribe ever hooked, were caught by these expert anglers.

Mrs. Wm. Boyle was a passenger to Fargo yesterday.

Otto Pritz was a business visitor in Devils Lake, Monday.

Mrs. Fred Hodgman and Mrs. Carl Peterson, of St. Paul, were guests at the J. C. Thingelstad home this week.

Governor Lynn J. Frazier will speak at Fluto's grove, Friday, (tomorrow) June 18. There will also be other speakers.

A big barn dance will be given at the Julius Wurst farm, next Saturday, June 26. Good music and free lunch. Everybody come. One mile north of Jessie.

Miss Hazel Maurer, whose wedding is to be an event of this month, was honor guest at a miscellaneous shower given at her home Wednesday evening. About fifty ladies were present and the hours were spent in playing games, interspersed with music. A delicious lunch brought by the guests was served at midnight. The bride-to-be received as gifts everything beautiful and useful in the line of china, silver and linen.

Church Announcements.

LUTHERAN FREE CHURCH
Sunday School every Sunday forenoon at 10 p. m. All children are welcome. Both English and Norwegian classes.

The young peoples society will be held Sunday evening, June 20, at 7:45 p. m.

Young Peoples Society Program
Recitation by Gladys Haugen.
Reading by Gunda Stokkeland.
Organ Recital by Miss Skofstad.
Recitation by Esther Halling.
Dialog, Thoralf Tweed and Jean Haugen.

Reading by Miss Svaren.
Speech by Sverre Torgerson.
The public is cordially invited