

JESSIE NEWS.

Henry Alfson was a Jessie caller Tuesday.

Harry St. John transacted business at McHenry, Friday.

O. L. Olson was a Cooperstown passenger, Wednesday.

Will Tweed, the contractor, was up from Binford Saturday.

Arne Arneson was in town the first of the week, hauling feed.

N. O. Haugen, of McVile, transacted business in Jessie, Thursday.

Ed Pfiefer of Cooperstown is visiting at the home of E. B. Ressler.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Detwiller visited at the St. John home Thursday.

Mrs. Fred Toenberg visited with friends in Waikum the first of the week.

Joe Ressler has been confined to his home the past week with a severe cold.

George A. Webber, of Washburn, was a Jessie visitor between trains, Thursday.

Frank Bednar, of near Cooperstown visited over Sunday with Jessie friends.

John Hovel returned home Saturday, after a brief visit with relatives in Cooperstown.

Otto Retzlaff attended the grain men's convention at Grand Forks, the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry St. John were entertained at dinner, Sunday, at the home of A. B. Detwiller.

Clarence Ronningen was in Jessie, Wednesday, and took the passenger from here to Cooperstown.

Bill Barnes returned to Jessie, Monday. He has been spending the winter with friends at Nashua, Montana.

Louis Pella, C. P. Dahl and Marion Wilkinson were in Cooperstown, Tuesday, to attend the Farmers Convention.

Augusta Wurst, who has been on the sick list for some time, is now much improved and is able to be up and around.

O. L. Anderson and wife returned from Minneapolis Wednesday after a few days visit with friends and relatives in that city.

Glenn Anderson, an old time Jessie boy, was in town Monday. Glenn is now traveling for the Equity Packing Co. of Fargo.

F. H. Tollefson departed Saturday for Jamestown for an over-Sunday visit with his wife and son, who have been staying there for some time past.

Mr. K. T. Drengson of Aneta, census enumerator, was in Jessie last week and announced he would return and take the census of Jessie and vicinity within a few days.

Mr. Finn Toenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Toenberg is suffering from the effects of a broken collar bone, caused by the falling of a horse on which he was riding.

The N. P. railroad has unloaded two cars in Jessie this week, which they intend to remodel and construct a residence for our depot agent, to take the place of the house recently burned.

Mr. and Mrs. John Skei were pleasantly surprised by a large number of their friends Saturday evening and a jolly party was enjoyed by those present. Mr. and Mrs. Skei expect to soon move from this locality.

The Jessie home talent play is scheduled to take place next Friday evening, Mar. 12. The proceeds of which are to apply on the cost of the furnace for the school, and is a most worthy cause. Everybody should make a special effort to attend.

Among those who attended the home talent play at Binford Friday evening were Messrs and Mesdames Graham McCulloch, Otto Retzlaff, Robert Thorn, Carl Rickford; Misses Ethel La Plant, Baker and Bouten; James Strand, Miller Vance, Fred Rickford and Bruce LaPlante.