

JESSIE NEWS.

Ed. Trost returned home from Fargo Tuesday.

Albert Rickford Jr. was a Binford caller Thursday.

Carl Toenberg was a Cooperstown passenger Saturday.

O. M. Roney, of Cooperstown, was a Jessie visitor Monday.

John Johnson transacted business in Jessie and Cooperstown last week.

Jorgen Nordness took the train from here for Cooperstown Tuesday.

Nick Ethen and wife were in town Friday and attended the home talent play.

Knute Dahl of Binford, attended the show and dance at Jessie Friday night.

A. O. Engemon, state bank examiner, was a business visitor here last week.

Dr. Westley was a professional caller in Jessie Thursday, between trains.

Arthur Aaland returned to Jessie last week, and is employed by Lee Green.

Herman Hovel and family visited at the home of Paul Rickford, Sunday last.

Rudolph Trost and Barney Cunningham were Cooperstown visitors Saturday.

Leonard Sletton of Cooperstown visited his brother Julius, the first of the week.

Mrs. Otto Retzlaff has been quite the past week, but is much improved at present.

Col. Mark and daughter, Mrs. F. Tolefson, arrived home Wednesday, from Jamestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Evers were entertained at the home of Graham McCulloch Friday.

Frank Pfiefer, Ben Pfiefer and Ben Jr. made a business trip to Bismarck, Wednesday.

Miss Inez Hemerlin visited with Miss Agnes Anderson at the N. McCulloch home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rickford were on the sick list last week. Dr. Truscott of Binford attended them.

Ed Thorn took the train for Bismarck, Wednesday, to attend the telephone meeting held in that city.

Mrs. Olai Lybeck of New Rockford, is here this week visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robt. Thorn.

Maynard Johnson returned to Jessie Tuesday. He has been visiting with his parents at Eagle Bend, Minn.

H. B. Blackie, who travels for Bartlett-Frazier & Co., Minneapolis, transacted business in Jessie the first of the week.

Eva Retzlaff, Esther Retzlaff and Ethel Howden of Clearfield township attended the entertainment, Friday evening.

Etho Husel has just received a pure blooded shorthorn bull, from Round Lake, Ill. It is claimed to be the best bred animal of its kind in the state.

A ten pound baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Milo Kingsley, Thursday, Mar. 11. Mrs. Kingsley is now at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wild.

Fred Kuipper, who has been attending an Electrical Engineering school in Chicago returned to Jessie Tuesday and is employed on the Norman McCulloch farm.

P. Schlehr and wife were in Jessie last week and wished to locate here, but failed to secure a dwelling house. Mr. Schlehr is a harness maker and his wife a barber.

The play "A Little Clodhopper," was given last Friday night as advertised. One of the members of the cast was taken suddenly ill, Friday, but a substitute was obtained, and under the circumstances the performance was as good as could be expected. The sum of $75 was realized which will apply on the cost of the school furnace. A large crowd attended the dance after the show.