

JESSIE NEWS.

Bert Campbell was a Jessie caller Tuesday.

Mat Hiller was a Binford passenger Tuesday.

Ben Pfeifer was a Cooperstown visitor Friday.

Palmer Peterson was a Binford visitor Wednesday.

Lee Green attended lodge at Cooperstown Thursday.

Fred Detwiller transacted business in Jessie Friday.

Oscar Anderson was in Binford between trains Tuesday.

Miss Emma Black visited at Cooperstown over Sunday.

Mrs. A. Eggermont spent Sunday with friends in Cooperstown.

J. D. Johnson, of Mose, transacted business in Jessie Saturday.

Dave Wilcox attended to business matters in Cooperstown Friday.

Miss Ester Thorn went to Cooperstown Friday, to see the dentist.

Wm. Adrian, of Binford, transacted business in Jessie last Tuesday.

Henry Beck and Clarence Anderson visited in Cooperstown Thursday.

Mrs. Paul Rickford was in Jessie last week. Although having been on the sick list for some time, Mrs. Rickford is able to be about again.

Mrs. Harry St. John was a Cooperstown visitor Friday, returning Saturday.

A. H. Urness received a carload of ice Saturday, and is busy unloading it at present.

Misses Bouton and Baker were Cooperstown passengers Friday, returning Saturday.

Miss Cleora Simpson returned from Wimbledon Tuesday, where she has been visiting relatives.

Albert Rickford returned home Saturday. He has been in Fargo all winter, attending school.

Ole Bakken returned from Fargo last week, where he had been attending the Nelson Tractor school.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rickford spent Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rickford.

Jacob Ness, who is moving on the John Syverson farm, was in town with a load of machinery Friday last.

John Pauser, of Little Falls, Minn returned to Jessie Tuesday, and will soon start work on his farm north of Jessie.

Miss Christine Hovel returned from Moorhead Thursday, where she has been visiting with her sister for some time past.

Miss Mable Hogan returned home Thursday. Miss Hogan has been in Cooperstown for some time past, and had quite a severe attack of influenza and we are glad to see her so greatly improved in health.

Mrs. Kingsley and daughter, M. Etta, of Cooperstown, visited at Max Wild home Friday with daughter-in-law, Mrs. Milo King. Mr. and Mrs. Toenberg entertained at dinner, Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McLaughlin, family, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Culloch and family, Jas. Stran Miller Vance and the Misses Bouton and Baker.

A Real Grain Treating Machine

For All Kinds of Small Grain

The Universal Tester

Every Farmer Must Have One

This machine will turn out from 50 to 70 bu. per hour, which is more than the average farmer wants to put on the field in one day.

For sale by

Ludvig Amundson